2012 Savings Opportunities!

If gasoline prices go up as predicted, I will most likely have to raise my hourly rate for hands-on organizing again in 2012, so if you still have some organizing that needs to be done, I would like to give you the opportunity to save $5/hour on EVERY HOUR of hands-on organizing that you schedule in person at one or more of the following events this year. I do these shows mostly so that people who hoard can stop by and meet me without ever having to reveal anything at all about themselves, unless they feel safe enough to do so. All new clients must complete an initial consultation, which costs a flat fee of $250.00 prior to their first day of hands-on organizing. However, on just the first day of hands-on organizing, at the end of the first 6-hours, all new clients receive 2 additional hours of hands-on organizing for free. I used to refund the $250 consult fee, but that was a bookkeeping headache, so it was easier to continue working 2 more hours at no cost to the client. If you or someone you know is having a struggle with clutter, I will be happy to help! —Susan G. Romanic, Professional Organizer
